on rails at Bangalore Railway Station and should hold good for at least thirty days from the date fixed for opening the tenders.

4. The quantities given in the accompanying schedule are only approximate. The purchase of the whole quantity mentioned in the schedule is not guaranteed. If, however, additional quantities than those mentioned are actually required the successful tenderer will be expected to supply such additional quantities at the accepted rate only. The whole quantity will have to be supplied within two months from the date of acceptance of tender is communicated to the successful tenderer.

5. Final acceptance of the tender will rest with the Stores Purchase Committee who do not bind themselves to accept the lowest or any tenderer or to assign any reason whatsoever for the rejection of any tender.

6. The name of the successful tenderer will be notified in due course and he will be required to deposit as security the amount noted against the articles in column 5 and to execute an agreement for the due fulfilment of the contract for the supply required, within eight days of the intimation of acceptance of the tender. The earnest money will be forfeited to Government, if the tenderer, whose tender is accepted fails to execute the agreement for the due fulfilment of the contract, and to furnish security as specified in column 5 of the following statement or if the tenderer withdraws his tender before the acceptance or non-acceptance of his tender is communicated to him. The earnest money on rejected tenders will be returned.

7. Should the contractor fail to comply with any of the conditions detailed above, his contract will forth be cancelled and the deposit forfeited to Government.

8. In case of dispute as to whether the supply of the articles is similar to that of sample deposited and as regards the performance of the contract the decision of the Stores Purchase Committee shall be final and binding on the successful tenderer.
